

Welcome

The family of John Scott Harwood would like to thank all those in attendance for helping us celebrate Scott's life.

Scott chose the road less traveled. He was a giving and kind soul who was loved by friends, family, and every dog he ever met. He appreciated the kindness of others and did as much as he could to be kind back. Challenged by demons, he fought a good fight and enjoyed things that most of us take for granted. Sunsets, back scratches, hikes, toys, and any body of warm water in North America; he missed very few of them and loved to share them. In the end, we hope he was comforted by our words and actions, and he will be missed by us all.

Isaiah 55

8 “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways,” declares the Lord.
9 “As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.
10 As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return to it without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish, so that it yields seed for the sower and bread for the eater,
11 so is my word that goes out from my mouth: It will not return to me empty, but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it.

Romans 10

13 for, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”
14 How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?
15 And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”
16 But not all the Israelites accepted the good news. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our message?” 17 Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word about Christ.

Ken would like to thank his wife, Kathleen, and our children for allowing Scott into their homes and making him feel like family. Thanks to Pam for allowing him to return to the north woods and use the family home as well as for the visits and prayers. Finally, a special thanks to all who prayed, supported, and showed love toward both Scott and our respective families. May GOD bless you and keep you and may HIS grace shine upon you.
